The Representation of Roma in European Curricula and Textbooks

Appendix 2: List of textbooks included in the survey 'The Representation of Roma in European Curricula and Textbooks'

1. Textbook lists for each country were drawn based on the GEI-Catalog TextbookCat (<http://itbc.gei.de>) based on criteria described in the Report 'The Representation of Roma in European Curricula and Textbooks';
2. Duplicate editions published in different years but with no differences in references to the Roma were excluded from the final bibliographies;
3. Entries in bold indicate that at least one mention of Roma (or equivalent term) was found in the respective textbook.

The Council of Europe is the continent's leading human rights organisation. It includes 47 member states, 28 of which are members of the European Union. All Council of Europe member states have signed up to the European Convention on Human Rights, a treaty designed to protect human rights, democracy and the rule of law. The European Court of Human Rights oversees the implementation of the Convention in the member states.
